Remarks:

Due to the Moon Festival holidays, meetings in September are on 9/2 and 9/23.

Summary on July 15, 2016 edited by Joyce Hu:

1. It's Anna's debut as Toastmaster of the evening after she reinstated her membership with Happy Life as her new home club. Ushering us from the beginning to the end with her energetic, uplifting and sophisticated meeting-conducting mastery. She also makes a very good usage of "word of the day – versatile" to introduce session masters and transit smoothly. Undoubtedly, she wins the best meeting role award.
2. Grace shows us "how to learn in new field" by organized her speech logically while Kevin uses metaphors, famous quotes and old sayings to reveal his wisdom about picking up his future son-in-law. For example: Victory has a thousand fathers but defeat is an orphan said John Fitzgerald Kennedy, a son is a son until he finds a wife but a daughter is a daughter all her life, just name a few.
3. General Evaluator Eddy suggests Table Topic Master to call upon the audience to answer his topics rather than waiting for volunteers. Individual Evaluators are expecting to receive their evaluation team master's suggestion for bettering their "feedback and advice" skill. Not only for the coming evaluation contest but enhancing the meeting quality for the benefits of all members, as well as the guests.
