

Script for “Ah” Counter

[Stand up and walk to the stage, handshaking with TME]

Thank you, Toastmaster of the Evening, My dear Fellow Members, and welcome Guests!

My duty as the “Ah” Counter is to listen carefully for verbal distractions, such as “um,” “ah,” “you know,” “and-so,” “but,” and other filler words or sounds. I will also keep track of the repeated words, like “the, the,” and, “I, I.”

I will count the numbers of the “Ahs” from your talk during each session. And also, I will give a report at the end of the meeting and tell you who is the Ah King or Ah Queen of tonight’s meeting.

Let’s welcome back to the Toastmasters of the evening.

[handshaking with TME and return to your seat, Sit down]
