C9. Persuade with Power

Objectives:

- ◆ Persuade listeners to adopt your viewpoint or ideas or to take some action.
- ◆ Appeal to the audience's interests.
- ◆ Use logic and emotion to support your position.
- ◆ Avoid using notes.

Time: 5 - 7 minutes

Summary on May 06, 2016 edited by Joyce Hu:

1. Feng-Ying brings a bunch of carnations not only reminds us Mother's day is in the corner but also as an incentive for members to come to the stage. Thanks for kindness and leading the meeting creatively.
2. The first time joke master Alan is well-prepared with three jokes to welcome more participants. He also accepts the last minute assignment as the table topic master to conduct the session successfully. And we're amused by Sunny's quite wit answer to "what's the uncomfortable pet for you?"
3. We give Irene a big run of applause for her inspiring speech "Preparing for the unexpected". Her personal story about how she's been through during the time between jobs touches the audience. Her determination to stand on the stage ensured her winning in competent communicator. Congratulations! To your new job and new chapter in life.
4. Kevin also opens a new chapter in his entertaining speech. We are mouth watering when listening to his description of the taste of roast duck. Joyce's "Accepting an award" is a rehearsal for her yet to come distinguished toastmaster award, the last mile challenge is ahead for her to conquer.
5. Fernando taking the job as general evaluator. He is the member every club long for as he never says no to new role. His confidence and poise show that he is a rising star.
