Summary on Mar 25, 2016 by Joyce Hu

1. Frank as TME gives us a brief introduction about the history of Toastmaster International, the first toastmaster club in Taiwan and Happy Life. Dr. Ralph C. Smedley, founder of Toastmasters wrote in 1965: "As I look back over a half century of connection with the Toastmasters movement, I am impressed by the fact that a simple idea, put to work in so simple a manner, has grown into such an instrument of service for so many people. It must have met a real need." We're glad and blessed to be part of it.

3. We have the new member conduction for Alan Chang, members and guests are in the queue welcoming our new blood. Alan also shows his talent as a very competent ah-counter. He listens attentively and gives a comprehensive ah-counter report help us improve our unintentional utter of sounds and words

4. Erin, the 2nd time visitor is elected the best table topic speaker for her thorough reply with an example supported her viewpoint for Zoe's question. We witness a rising star and promising communicator in Erin.

5. Kevin's "A heartfelt Love on a par with White Snake" weaves the legend of white snake into the real-life true romantic story. And Joyce shares with us the skill of assertiveness is to know who you are and what you stand for by expressing your honest feelings comfortably and asserting your rights while respecting the feelings and rights of others.

6. Special thanks for Sunny taking multiroles, her evaluation team and adjusting the time flexibly to keep us on track. As a promise, Fheng-Ying will be the joke section master next meeting to complete her duty.
